Re: [REDACTED] v. John Does [REDACTED]
Circuit Court of the 11th Judicial District in and for Miami-Dade County, Florida
Docket No.: [REDACTED]
Order Entered: [REDACTED]
Comcast File #: [REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] has filed a federal lawsuit in the Circuit Court of the 11th Judicial District in and for Miami-Dade County, Florida. You have been identified via your assigned Internet Protocol ("IP") address, which is unique to each internet user, in this lawsuit for allegedly infringing [REDACTED] copyrights on the Internet by uploading or downloading a movie without permission. This was allegedly done using a computer assigned the IP address [REDACTED] on [REDACTED]. The Court has ordered Comcast to supply your name, address and other information to [REDACTED] in the attached Order and accompanying Subpoena. Your case has been assigned Docket Number [REDACTED] the Court. If you have any questions about the lawsuit, you should consult an attorney immediately. Comcast cannot and will not provide any legal advice.

Comcast will provide your name, address and other information as directed in the Order unless you or your attorney file something with the Circuit Court of the 11th Judicial District in and for Miami-Dade County, Florida such as a motion to quash or vacate the Subpoena no later than [REDACTED]. Should you choose to contest the release of your information by filing legal process with the court, it must be filed in the same court where the lawsuit is filed. If you make this filing, you must notify Comcast in writing with a copy of the filing by sending it via fax to [REDACTED] no later than [REDACTED]. Please note that Comcast cannot accept or file any legal action on your behalf. If you do not file a motion to quash or vacate the Subpoena by this date, or if you fail to notify Comcast of your filing by this date, Comcast will provide your name, address and other information as directed in the Order to the Plaintiff on the next business day after [REDACTED].

If you have any questions regarding Comcast's obligations or procedures, you may contact us at [REDACTED]. If you have legal questions about this matter, please contact an attorney.

Sincerely yours,

Comcast Legal Response Center
